AFTER DEATH COMMUNICATION

Someone on the other side is seeking contact

DEFINITION: Communication from the other side. This is communication that is initiated by the other side, usually from a loved one. It can be visual or audible (telepathic or out loud.) It can come as a smell or a taste. It can come as the sensing of a particular presence. The overwhelming consensus is that our loved ones most often contact us in the dream state.

KEY IDEAS: WELCOME THE DEAD - AFTERLIFE CONNECTION - LOVE FROM THE OTHER SIDE - SOLACE FROM THE NEXT WORLD

READING: A loved one is trying to reach you. This is a good time to open your heart and mind to the other side.

Begin a practice of holding space for those who are beyond the veil.

Simple breathing techniques and practicing mindfulness while focused on the third eye can help strengthen your connection.

While you may not see or hear them right away, you will sense their essence. This allows the door to open.

ALIEN CONTACT

A coming change will require adopting a new paradigm

DEFINITION: Creatures from another world. Most commonly the spindly limbed, big-eyed entities known as “The Grays” are reported, though other species are well-known. Popular culture assumes these beings are extraterrestrial though some schools of thought do not rule out other dimensions of this reality or other realities as their place(s) of origin.

KEY IDEAS: UNFAMILIAR TERRITORY - PERSONAL ADJUSTMENTS - SHAKE UP - A NEW STANDARD – OUTSIDE INTERVENTION

READING: Someone or something arrives that is entirely out of your comfort zone. Personal adjustments will be required on your part. Your outlook on things – especially those things you’ve taken for granted will have to change. This has the potential to shake up your world in a very big way.

Don’t resist this change as the end result will benefit you. How quickly you see the benefits is related to how quickly you embrace the new standard.

ANGELIC MESSAGE

You are receiving an answer to a prayer.

DEFINITION: Angel is derived from the Greek: “Angelos” which means “messenger of God.” Angels are thought to be messengers, attendants, and protectors to the human race. Angels are described in both ecclesiastical and mundane texts over the ages. They are often described as “beings of light,” although apparently, they can also take the form of ordinary humans.

KEY IDEAS: COMFORT – HEALING GIFTS - UNCONDITIONAL LOVE - PRAYERS ANSWERED – OBTAINING A HIGH VIBRATION – SACRED TOUCH

READING: We call these beings of light angels, but they are not concerned with names. Your angel has worked as a catalyst between you and the greater vibrational reality since you were born.

Angels carry the universal frequency of love. Their messages are always gentle, positive, and comforting. The heart must be open to receive this vibration.

Take some time to get quiet and listen.

Light a candle and set an intention for communication with your angel. Don't forget to say “thank you.”

ANGRY GHOST

Now is the time to acknowledge anger that has been repressed

DEFINITION: The presence of an angry ghost can cause enormous fear and an uproar. They may stomp around and throw things or otherwise make their presence known in negative ways. Angry ghosts are said to be the spirits of those who have died with vengeance in their hearts and are seeking retribution from the living. They may be the spirits of those who have not been able to come to terms with their passing.

KEY IDEAS: RESENTMENT - REPRESSED ANGER - NEGATIVE ENERGY - UNHEALTHY EMOTIONS - BITTERNESS

READING: You are being guided to recognize resentments and repressed anger. Hidden anger can stalk you, poisoning relationships and your health. This can alter your energy and make you a magnet for anger from the physical and beyond.

Anger must be recognized and accepted. It will not be denied. Anger is a secondary emotion to the primary emotion of fear. Examine this situation for what makes you fearful and angry. Once you've accepted it as normal emotion, needing no justification, you can begin to heal.

This is not about confrontation but the gentle and loving acceptance of your own feelings. Of course, while angry feelings are acceptable, antisocial behavior is not.

AUTOMATIC WRITING

Remember who you are

DEFINITION: A type of channeling, Automatic Writing is a good way to communicate with your higher-self and/or your spirit guides. In a semi-meditative state, ask a question and allow yourself to simply write whatever comes up. Many compare this to simply taking dictation. Your higher self and your guides will only ever convey positive messages of love and warmth. If the messages you receive seem negative or fearful, you can be sure it's not from a higher vibration.

KEY IDEAS: SPONTANEITY – TRUTH – A CRY FROM THE HEART – INTIMACY – WRITTEN MESSAGES

READING: Time to get back to what's really real. Honor that which arises spontaneously. This implies a slowing down and drawing towards you only that which you cherish. This is a cry from the heart to remember who you are. Communication with your higher self is indicated at this time to help re-discover your simplest truths. There is nothing to be added, only stripped away. Genuine intimacy both with self and others is well-positioned at this time.

BLACK-EYED KIDS

Ulterior Motives

DEFINITION: Perhaps there's nothing more terrifying or unsettling than to run into a pack of these creatures. They are reported to approach people seeking entry to their homes or cars. The requests they make are strange and overly familiar. They are generally dressed in old-fashioned or very odd clothing and almost always with a hoodie partially obscuring their faces. It's only when the victim engages closely with them, that they are shocked to see that these "children" have completely black eyes. The question is: what happens if they get in?

This is not a time for grasping or trying to control the uncontrollable. The overall changes will be positive or negative to the degree that you try to hang onto old ways. Do not try to force your will on a changing situation.

This is a time of transition. The universe is shaking up your world in order to rid you of the things that will not serve you in the future.

CHANNELING

Connect to a higher vibration

DEFINITION: To channel is to allow the ego-mind to step aside so that the higher self can use the physical body to convey messages. These messages can be spoken or written. Guides and other spiritual entities can come through a channel. There have been many famous channels over the ages. Jane Roberts was famous for channeling an entity called Seth who dictated a series of books. In contemporary times, Esther Hicks channels a group of entities called Abraham.

KEY IDEAS: QUESTIONS ANSWERED – HUMILITY - HIGHER SELF – ALLOWING – OPENING TO SPIRIT

READING: Sometimes the answers to our questions are obscured by the physical world. The ego must step aside temporarily to allow your higher self to enlighten you about a concern or question that you have.

Meditation, mindfulness, and prayer will help you gain what is needed right now. The higher part of you knows the right course of action. A spiritual connection with that part of your being will be useful.

You may want to journal your concerns and wait patiently for the download of a compassionate and loving response.

DEFINITION:

For millennia, ghosts have been interpreted as strictly the spirits of the dead. It is thought that they revisit this plane for various reasons or that they're trapped here somehow.

Technically, all ghosts are disappearing ghosts. One of the hallmarks of paranormal occurrences is that they are here one minute, and then they're gone. For some, this is an indication that these phenomena represent a momentary collision of our dimension with another's. Could ghosts represent phenomena coming from various dimensions, even those involving time itself?

A return to a level playing field.

Energies that have been building up over time will now seek a favorable release. What has been stagnant, becomes dynamic.

TIME SLIP

Right timing

DEFINITION: A Time-Slip is the sudden experience of being in another era of time, usually the past. Through the ages, there have been numerous accounts of both individuals and groups of people experiencing time slips. For a brief time, these people report that they find themselves surrounded by a world that is not their own. Architectural styles, clothing, vehicles, and landscapes suddenly appear as they did in the past. The phenomenon ends as abruptly as it began. It's wise to keep a close eye on valuables at this time.

UNIDENTIFIED FLYING OBJECTS

Hiding in plain sight

DEFINITION: Technically, the definition of an Unidentified Flying Object is anything in the sky that is not identifiable by the observer. Since biblical times at least, people have been reporting strange lights and crafts overhead. The direction is less important than the simple act of beginning right now.

WINGED HUMANOID

Scrupulous honesty

DEFINITION: Perhaps Mothman is the best-known of this type of cryptid but he/she is far from alone. There are many reports of large winged creatures featuring a human physique. Left alone, many facets will simply resolve themselves as quickly as they materialized. Your intuition will tell you which aspects to leave alone and which to take action on. It would be all-too-easy to add confusion and delay to this issue by trying too hard to fix it.
